Rocco Forte House: the height of elegant Roman living

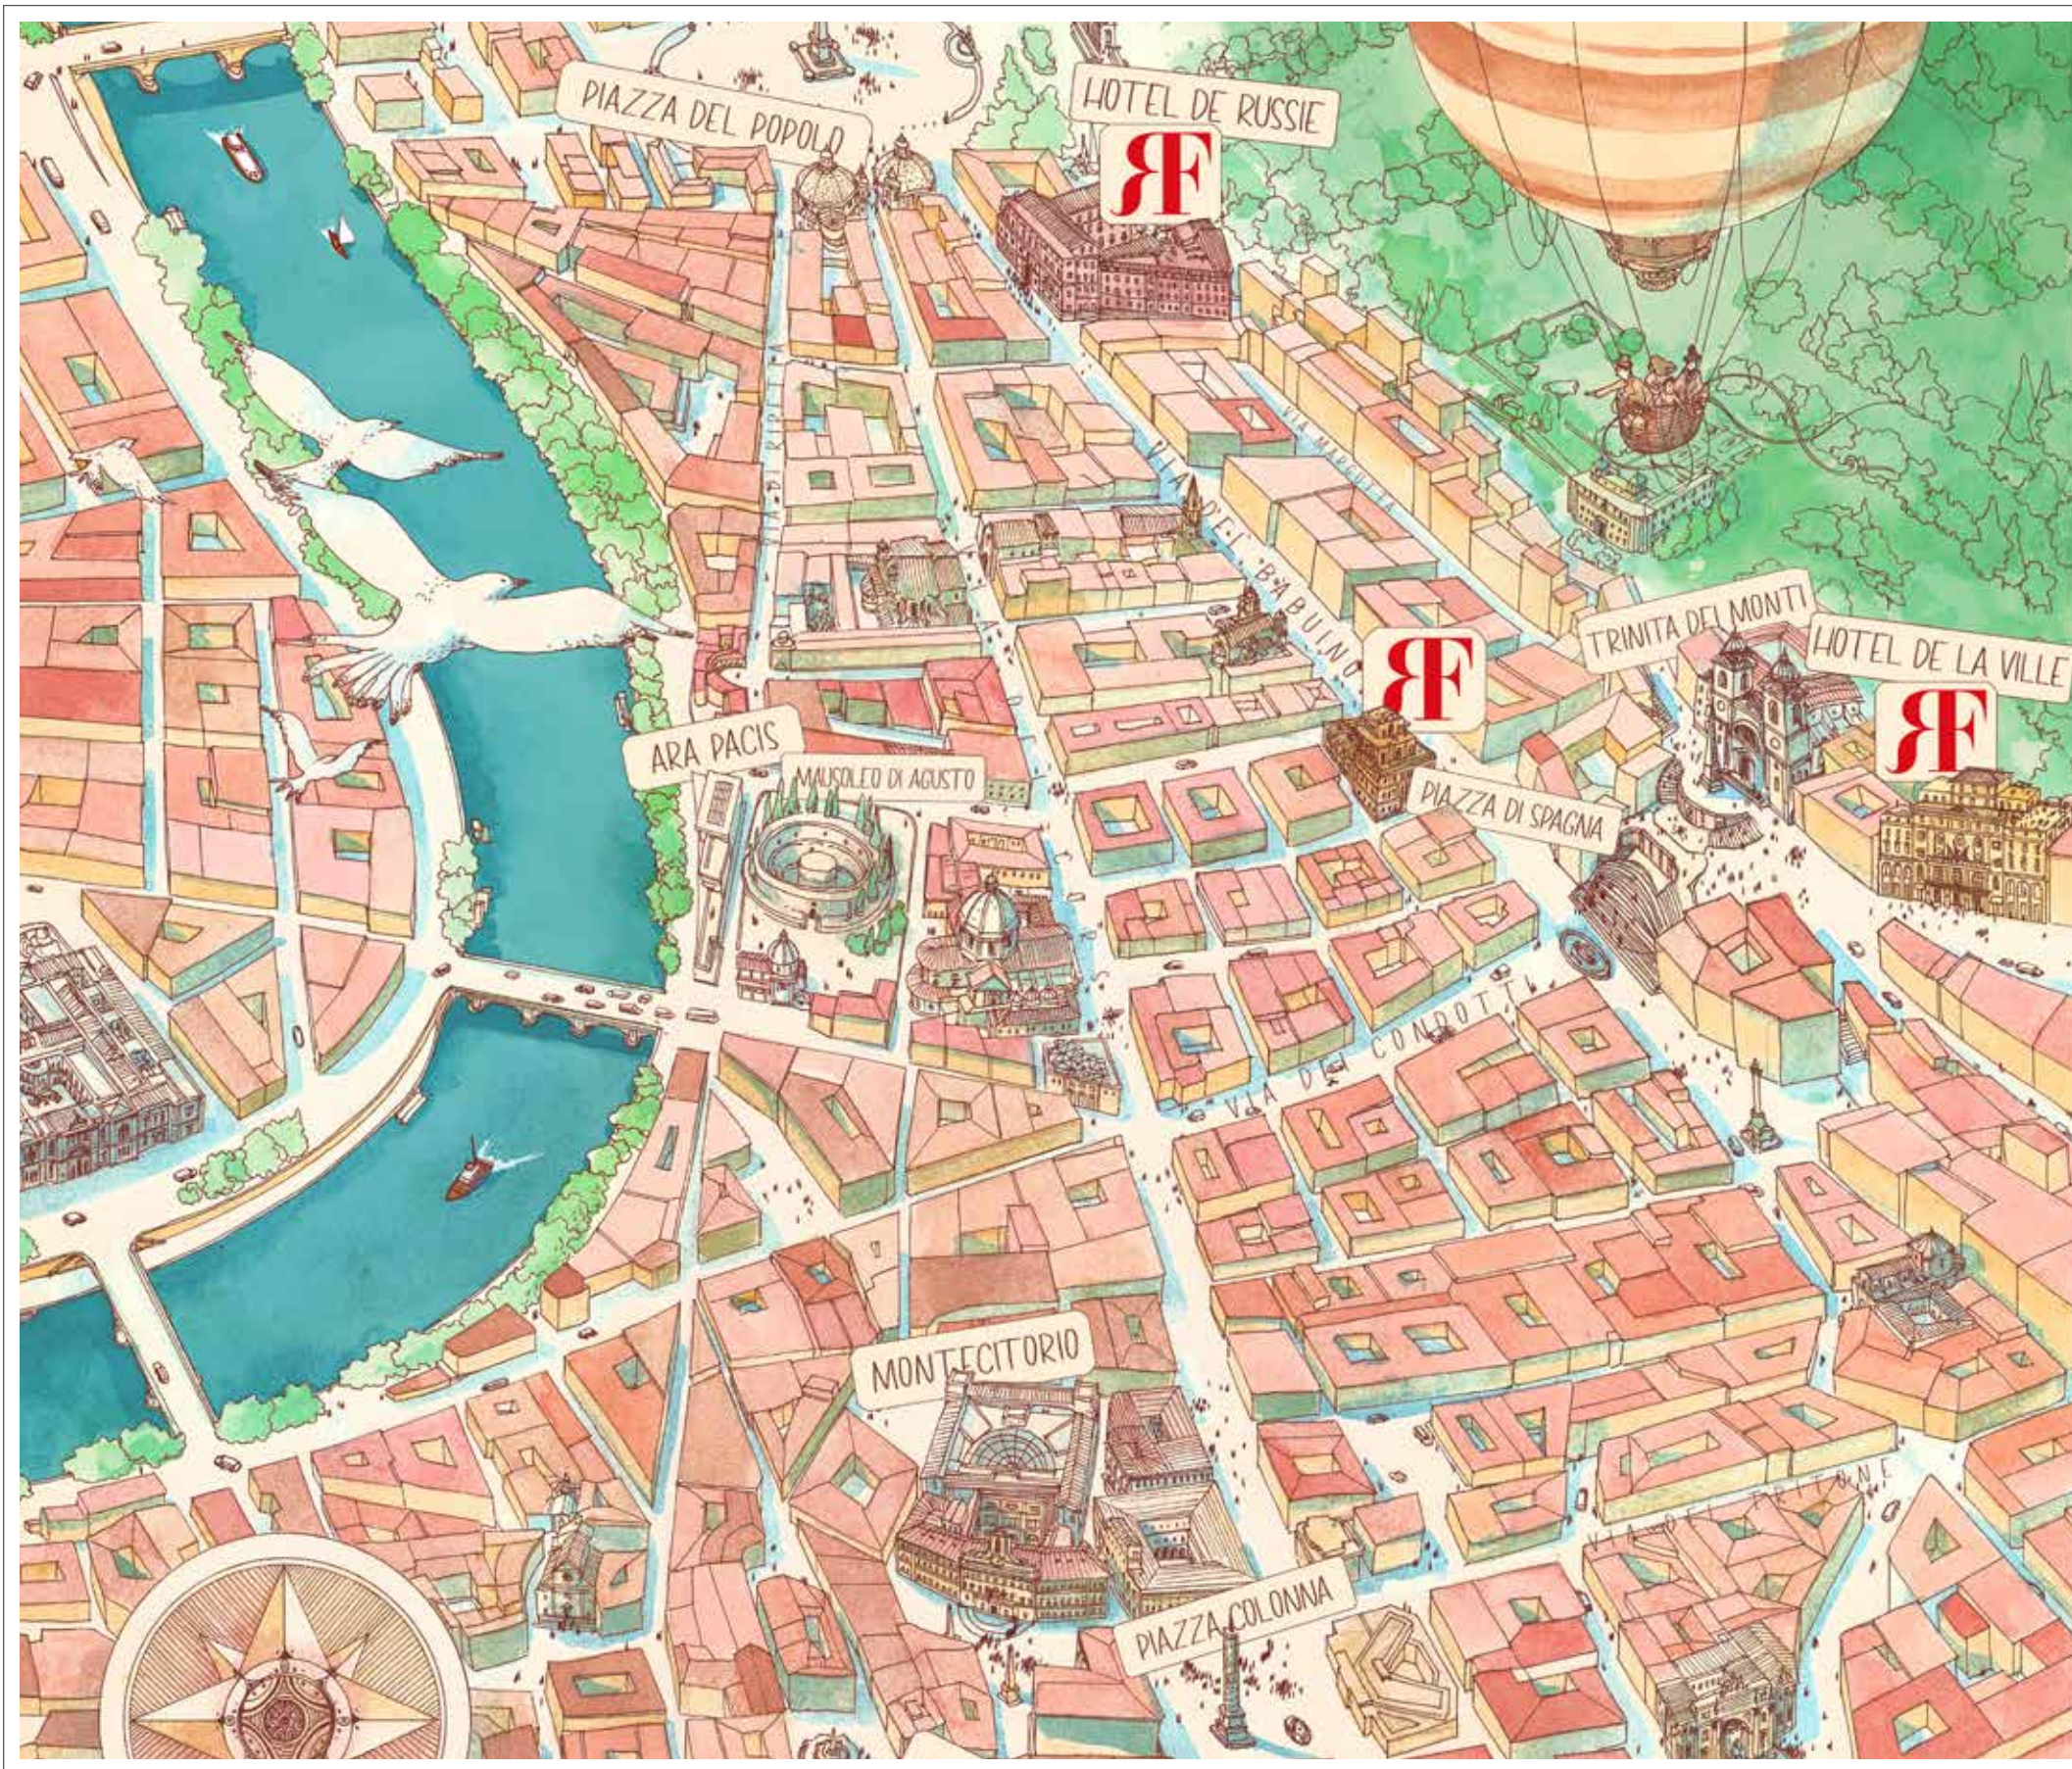

YOUR EXCLUSIVE APARTMENT AT PIAZZA DI SPAGNA

Rocco Forte House is a striking 18th-century Roman palazzo perched on Piazza di Spagna in the historical heart of Rome, comprising five apartments designed by creative icon Tommaso Ziffer, a long-time collaborator of both Valentino and Olga Polizzi.

Each apartment offers palatial living quarters including a sitting room, dining room, fully equipped kitchen and two double bedrooms. For families and large groups, the apartments on the second and third floor can interconnect to form two four-bedroom residences of 291 square metres. Upstairs, the fifth-floor rooftop is open to all guests, a communal area with an honesty bar backdropped by breathtaking views of the Eternal City.

Just across the piazza, guests at Rocco Forte House can enjoy dining and spa facilities at the Hotel de la Ville. Your dedicated House Concierge is always on hand to make your stay even more memorable.

with fellow Romans at the espresso bar.
Stroll along the Tiber, seek out Renaissance masterpieces in the city's churches and linger over lunch at a trattoria. Hunt down antiques, pick seasonal produce at the city's *mercato*s or simply ask your House Manager to organise a dinner by your own private chef.

Discover a new museum or revisit your favourite spots amongst the ancient ruins dotted around the city. Immerse yourself in
